SENATOR WILLIAM O. BRADLEY

Sounded Key Note of Campaign of Corbin

Spoke in Interest of Caleb Powers' Candidacy

We clip the following extract from Senator W. O. Bradley's address delivered a few days ago in Corbin. He said in part:

Who was it my old soldier friend that gave you your pension? Who was it that pensioned the widow and orphan of those who fell in the struggle for their country?

Was it the Democratic Party? No! for the Democratic Party as late as 1864 in its National platform declared that the war was a failure. While we were struggling to save our country; while we were struggling to save our flag, these men stabbed us in the back by saying—the war is a failure, withdraw your soldiers and let your country be divided, and yet, that party now wants somebody to put them into power. Whoever heard of such supreme impertinence? Who gave you your pensions? The Republican Party of this country. Who gave freedom to the slave? Who was it that said slavery shall not exist beneath the flag wherever it flies, it matters not how black the skin of the man may be—shall not be a slave! The Republican party said it. The Republican Party is the party of liberty; it is the party of progress; it is the party that has made this nation today, the greatest nation on this earth, and did it all over Democratic protest. (Applause)

Now, while on the subject of pensions—Do I talk to an old Union soldier today? Do I talk to the son of an old Union soldier? (to both) Listen! Here is a document that came into my possession the other day that is being distributed as a Democratic Campaign document, written by D. Cady Eaton, New Haven, Connecticut. You soldiers and the children of the old soldiers take this home with you. Do your duty like men, bring your friends out and elect Caleb Powers. (Applause) Now, listen! this document begins—"The people of the several SOVEREIGN States—" these people have had the "stuffin" licked out of them—they have been crippled so badly that they do not know what to do with themselves—but some cannot forget the past, and here they are now speaking of "the people of the several SOVEREIGN States—" (Applause) But let us continue—"are tired of paying enormous sums toward the support of ever increasing number of the pensioners of the Central Government. They claim that so far as there be charity, patriotism, pride and gratitude in the huge political machine, they have never surrendered the SOVEREIGN right, power and privilege of exercising these sentiments in accordance with their own sense of justice and their own notions of economy. They assert that the pension laws in existence—"not the pension LAW but the pension LAWS in existence (which include all pension laws) "are unconstitutional." That is always the cry of the Democratic party, and yet if they had had their way we would have had no constitution, no country, nor anything else! (Applause) We would have been in the condition of Bill Sloan whose son went West and was killed by a train. He received a message saying "your son run over by a railroad train and killed, what shall we do?" He immediately answered, "Send home his remains!"

He received the answer—"There

haint none to send." (Applause and laughter) Now, listen, the pension laws are not only unconstitutional, but "they foster injurious and erroneous ideas of a Republican form of Government." God grant that I may never live to see the day that this country will be so ungrateful as to turn its back upon those men who served it in its hour of need; and if it should, from my heart of hearts, I hope it may go down in ruin and destruction, for the nation that has no gratitude for its preservers has no proper place in the sight of God or man. (Applause) But my friends, let's come a little nearer home on this pension question. As late as the third day of October there appeared an editorial in the Courier-Journal, you all know the Courier-Journal, a Democratic paper, headed "The Pension Carnival." Think about the meaning of the word "carnival," the "Pension Carnival." Here is what it says: "An article by William Bayard Hale in the current number of the World's Work shows how crooked legislation swelled the Federal pension roll from $15,000 just after the Civil War, to $165,000,000 in 1908. Of course the major portion of this enormous sum represents nothing more and nothing less than a sort of form of graft. There is hardly a community in which there is not a well known character drawing a pension which the community knows was fraudulently obtained. A middle aged man who was in the Union Army, a sutler has as good a chance as a soldier provided he had the rheumatism." Now, what do you think of that? This is Mr. Bertram's paper, the paper that he falls down and worships. It continues: "The article, which presents many specific instances of deliberate graft, contains no matter that is new to persons familiar with pension legislation, but it may serve to awaken the interest of many persons who have not taken the trouble to familiarize themselves with the methods and motives of the patriots who scuttled the treasury in behalf of a horde containing countless individuals who are in no way entitled to support by the people."

"The pension carnival" is merely one ramification of the carnival of graft which adds to the cost of living in the United States a burden that many millions of its bearers can ill afford to tote."

That is Democratic chat. Do you like it? If there is an old soldier here that is a Democrat I ask him—can he swallow that dose? If he does he should die of acute indigestion. (Applause.)

THE ADVANTAGES

Of Buying Real Estate in Barbourville

The buying of Real Estate in Barbourville has gone by the experimental stage, it is now simply a matter of good sound business judgment.

In the past five years over $200,000 has been put into fine new buildings in this town. Property has increased 50 per cent and this is but a beginning. The next five or ten years will be RED LETTER ones in the growth of Barbourville.

Already new industries are being talked about and with the energy and push displayed by the business men of Barbourville there is no reason whatever why the town should not double in population in the next five years.

Just an example of how quick property increases in value. A few weeks ago the Bowman Realty Co.

sold lots in what is known as the Bowman Realty Co. addition, since the sale several lots have changed hands at an increase in price of from EIGHTEEN TO FIFTY dollars. There are left in this addition thirty lots, which will be sold at private sale during the next fifteen days. All further information concerning these lots, terms, etc., can be obtained at the Hotel Jones from O. L. Blanchard, or at Black's National Bank.

Death of Miss Mary Ballinger

Miss Mary Ballinger the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ballinger, aged about twenty years, died at the family residence near this city last Saturday morning, after an illness covering a period of several months.

She was a graduate of Union College two years ago, and was a very estimable young lady, admired by all who knew her.

The funeral service was held at the family residence on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Prof. James P. Faulkner, her former teacher.

A very large concourse of friends gathered to pay their last respects and extend sympathy to the family.

The interment took place in the local cemetery immediately following the funeral service.

We extend to the sorrowing ones our sympathy in the hour of affliction but remind them that she has gone before where she will be prepared to meet her loved ones as they follow her.

Let us not think of Mary as dead, but as living, not a flower that has withered, but one that transplanted and touched by a Divine hand, is blooming in richer color and sweeter fragrance than those of earth. There is no death! The stars go down,

To rise upon some fairer shore.

And bright in heaven's jeweled crown,

They shine forever more.

EXTRAORDINARY

Offer Made by Bowman Realty Company

Mr. O. L. Blanchard, Private Sales Manager of the Bowman Realty Co., is in town and is making a most exceptional offer to the citizens of Barbourville and vicinity.

As will be remembered, the above company held a most successful lot sale on what is known as the Bowman Realty Co. addition, a few days ago, having only 30 lots left.

Several letters have been received at the Home Office in Huntington, asking that the remainder be sold this Fall, as many who were desirous of purchasing lots in the above addition were unable to be present on sales day.

The remaining 30 lots will be sold at private sale during the next 15 days, and in order to dispose of these lots quickly, the terms will be made to suit the purchaser. Furthermore, the Gold Bond issued by the Bowman Realty Co. is good for a twenty dollar discount on the list price of any lot purchased. Full information concerning these Bonds can be had from O. L. Blanchard or T. P. Murphy at Hotel Jones.

If you want to invest in Real Estate in one of the most promising towns in Kentucky, now is the time to do it.

If you want to start a foundation towards owning your own home and stop paying rent, you will never have another chance like this. The prices are right, and your TERMS ARE OUR TERMS. There is no excuse. It is up to the citizens of Barbourville to all do their LITTLE MITT towards the growth and future prosperity of our beautiful little city. The Bonds will also be found at the Banks.

Bertram Proposes to Buy A Seat in Congress

The saintly Senator Bertram is trying, through his campaign manager, to buy his way into Congress. He preaches high morality, and practices low corrupting methods, through his manager, Mr. May, in trying to buy Republican votes with Democratic money. The following letter (with the name withheld) was sent to a leading Democrat out in the State, and is being sent to Democrats all over Kentucky:

"DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS ELEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

"Somerset, Ky., 10-20-1910.

"Hon. _____, Ky.

"Dear Sir:

"You are no doubt familiar with the tremendous effort we are making to defeat Caleb Powers in this district for Congress and elect Senator Elza Bertram. We think we have a good chance to elect him provided we get sufficient outside help to enable us to finish the campaign as we have planned.

"We are appealing to the Democrats all over the State to lend us all possible assistance, and knowing that you will be willing to contribute to this cause and thus aid us in saving the State the name of being represented by a man thrice convicted and twice pardoned of conspiracy in assassination, and in order to save you the time and trouble of writing a letter and check, I am taking the liberty of drawing on you by sight draft (with no protest attached) for the small amount of ten dollars.

"Allow me, on behalf of the Democracy of the Eleventh district, to sincerely thank you for this assistance. With very best wishes, I beg to remain,

"Yours very truly,
(signed) "Woodson May,
"Chairman."

Every Republican paper, every Republican speaker, every friend of Republicanism should spread this news to the people of the district; and every Republican therein should resent this insult to his integrity and Republicanism by going to the polls and voting for Caleb Powers on Tuesday, November 8th.

THE CHANCE Of a Life Time For the Workman

Stop Paying Rent, We Will Help You

It is a well known fact that in every community of this size there is many a worthy working man, who would if he could, own his own home, but owing to the hundred and other difficulties, which arise in this world of sorrow and sin, he has been unable to buy a lot upon which to build, unable to lay aside the first few hundred dollars necessary to buy a suitable building site, that is, it is to be that way, but a man who DOES NOT, now, buy a building lot, has no excuse whatever, his only excuse is that he has no backbone enough, ambition enough, pride enough to take hold of the wheel and turn it his way and not the OTHER fellow's way.

And this has been made possible by the most liberal and popular method pursued by the Bowman Realty Co., who will, for the next few days, sell the remaining thirty lots at private sale. Any one wishing one of these most desirable lots, can do so by paying down a small cash payment and paying a small payment each month. The rest is easy after your lot is paid for, any building association or bank will lend you the money to build.

Why not make your start now, and besides our Gold Bond is good for $20 on any lot purchased. Call at Hotel Jones at any time and Mr. O. L. Blanchard will be pleased to go over the matter with you. Don't delay. Delays are dangerous, and we have only 30 lots left, we play no favorites, first come, first served. So get in on the GROUND FLOOR and you are not in danger of falling off from the roof.

Halloween Social

The Halloween social given in the Davidson building last Monday night was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by all present. The spooks and ghosts were there in profusion and produced quite a lot of fun for the entire party present. Refreshments were served and the Aid Society realized about $25.00 from the proceeds.

Jim Noneme's Luck

The following is practically an actual conversation overheard by Mr. O. L. Blanchard, Private Sales Manager of the Bowman Realty Co., now in town to dispose of a few remaining lots in the Bowman addition. The name of course is fictitious:

Jim Noname was here when the land was all slough. Where the depot is now and the railroad runs through; He owned a hull forty o' townsite, by gum,

An' let it all go fer th' taxes, I vum;

He could have bought Bowman's Addition, I guess,

Fer twenty-five dollars, an' melbbe ter less;

An' he was once offered the hull block of land

Fer a span of gray mules, where the Court house now stands,

Jim says somehow its always his fate,

To be too darn early or else be too late.

Th' steam cars stop now on the way going through,

Where he used to cut hay, 'fore the drained out the slough.

Jim says nobody'd ever have thoe' That a depot'd be built in so wet a spot.

An' he let it go fer a song, an' I vum

She's worth nigh five hundred an acre right now;

Jim says where Union College has bought

Was offered to him fer two dollars a lot,

An' sold fer two thousand, th' year before last,

Which runs into profit, says Jim, purty darn fast.

Ef he'd only known what a future'd bring

He'd be worth a million this minute, by jing,

Cus land sells today fer five hundred a lot

That might have been Jim's just as easy as not.

Who'd ever a thought, says Jim to me,

They'd be such a town where just land used t' be.

It makes me disgusted when I see John Black's Bank

Where I use t' fill up my old water tank;

It just goes to show that there aint nothing fair

About life at all, an' th' feller that's square

An' don't want it all, he just stays where he is

An' schemers, buy land while its cheap, git what orter be his.

Mary Jane Abner

Mary Jane Abner was born July 6, 1860, deceased Oct. 24, 1910, aged 50 yrs. 3 mos. and 8 days. She was a constant member of the church from her youth and lived a faithful life. She was the mother of eleven children, nine of whom still survive her. She was a faithful mother and died in a full triumph of a living faith.

She lived for those around her; her neighbors, kind and true, they framed it by their actions, with their heart and hand to use.

Her son, Prof. James Abner, from Middle, Tenn., reached home in time to hear the last whisper that fell from her lips, the message was this: "Jim, take care of the two smaller children, to whom we want every father and mother give a word of counsel."

They removed her body to the church house on Bull Creek, where the funeral was conducted by Rev. M. G. Disney and Rev. Mills. She was then removed to the cemetery, where her body was consigned to the tomb to await the resurrection of the saints.

Republican Ticket.

For Congress.

Hon. Caleb Powers,
OF KNOX COUNTY.

OUR LAST APPEAL.

Before another issue of this paper is off the press, the voters of this grand old Eleventh district will be called upon to express at the polls their choice as to who shall represent us for the next two years in the lower house of the National Congress. Hon. Caleb Powers holds a mission from the Republican Party as their standard bearer name will appear on the ballot under the Log Cabin, the Republican emblem or device, and he is depending upon every Republican standing by him now as he stood by them during the stormy days of 1900 and the years to follow.

Mr. Bertram in making a forlorn campaign, with no possible show of being elected, but trying to cause, if possible, a split among the Republicans in order that he might reap the reward. We, as Republicans, have but one duty to perform, and that is to march boldly and quietly to our respective voting places next Tuesday, and after having our name properly registered by the Clerk, procure from him our ballot and retire to the booth and place the stencil in the large circle immediately under the Log Cabin. Then fold our ballot and hand it one of the Judges and after seeing that it is properly deposited in the ballot box, retire and let the next man come and do likewise.

Let's make Powers' majority as large as possible this time, because a falling off in the vote this year would give the Democrats renewed hope that they might some day be able to overcome our proud majority and have a Democrat represent this district in Congress; while a good regular majority or a little increased majority would quiet them for some time to come.

Don't forget your duty to yourself and to your country, that of suffrage, and remember that every Democrat in the district will be out to deposit his vote against the nominee of the Republican party, therefore your duty is to be at the polls and cast your vote for the Republican nominee.

Until you have done that you have not done your duty. Let's not be shrinkers, but workers in the ranks of the grand old party.

"UNLESS I AM ASSASSINATED."

"I gladly accept your nomination and will be in the race until the polls close unless I am assassinated."

So said the Hon. Elza Bertram accepting the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Eleventh district. This was received with hand clapping and applause. It came as an endorsement of the previous statement of Senator McCreary that the Republican nominated Caleb Powers convicted of murder, dramatic de- un- e James, that Pow- derer, a man whose hands were dripping with blood. This coming from James set the convention wild.

The statement of the Hon. Mr. Bertram was in harmony with former Congressman Wheeler's avowal on a certain occasion that he could not compliment all Kentucky, that he drew the line at the mountains, where the people did not think like or act like the people of other portions of the State and in the end would not go to the same abode.

It is of like tenor with the exclamation of former Senator Blackburn that he would like to put dynamite under the Eleventh district and blow it out of existence.

It has the ring of Mr. Stevenson's lurid language nominating Mr. Byrd in the Tenth district: "The Democrats of the mountain live on top with their heads in heaven, the Republicans at the foot with their feet in hell."

It renders emphatic the Democratic platform of 1900 in which the Republican party of the State were in vigorous Saxon denounced as a "party of assassination."

To all these utterances Mr. Bertram adds the cap sheaf by an expression of alarm for his own personal safety in campaigning a mountain district. This is creditable neither to his head nor his heart. He has simply given room for a belief that he is one of those ill birds that foul their own nests. Mr. Bertram is mountain born and reared. It is sad to think that a little cheap Congressional nomination should have so turned his head as to cause him to be hand and glove with calumniators and revilers of his own people. His alarm is needless; he will not be assassinated; he will be preserved for a life sentence of regret. He will be overwhelmed by an avalanche of mountain ballots after which he may retire to his home a sadder and we hope, a wiser man.

Some one of old said "Put not your trust in princes;" it would have been far better for Mr. Bertram if some one had whispered in his ear, and he had heeded it, "Put not your trust in Goebels or the slanderers of the mountains."

We confess we were rather agreeably impressed with the reports we had heard about Mr. Bertram until we heard of the part he and his preacher politician father played in the infamous Goebel election law and opened Pandora's Box in Kentucky. Such as they set the commonwealth back twenty years. We did not take kindly to the candidacy of Caleb Powers because we did not want to reopen the past, but when it comes to a choice between one of Goebel's lieutenants in those unholy days and one of the victims of the troubles they brought upon the State we do not hesitate in our preference, and we hope for Powers' overwhelming election. —Lexington Leader.

There was a time when the Mountain Echo was read and relied upon by the people throughout the entire district and throughout the State as being entirely reliable and worthy of entrance into the home circle of the most refined homes of our land. That was in the day when Senator Dyche edited and controlled the destiny of the paper. Since it has passed out of his hands and from under his influence, behold what a woeful and wonderful change has come to this unfortunate paper. First, it fell into the hands of one E. C. Linnie, who undertook to direct its course, and it seems sealed its destiny. He debauched its reputation and led it in the paths of unrighteousness for a season until finally the good people would stand for it no longer and he retired and his mantle fell upon one J. S. Stephenson, who has far the past four years, perhaps, been attempting to continue in the same course in which his predecessor had started until today the Echo has lost its political standing and is not recognized in the journalistic field as wielding any influence whatever, but on the contrary is occasionally quoted in derision by some rabid Goebelite Democratic paper, and branded as a Republican paper.

Poor silly editor. To have no more gumption than to think he is pandering to public opinion because some rank Democratic newspaper clips some of his rank idiotic remarks and republishes them to show the real shallowness of the man pretending to occupy the editorial chair. We really have a feeling of sympathy for such an one, and only wish that he had enough ordinary common sense to realize his true position and either stop making such a flagrant ass of himself and his position, or retire from the profession and allow some man to have the place who might, in a measure at least, regain for the Echo its long lost good name, or at least one that would not be a disgrace to the profession in the highlands of our State.

CANTRELL AND POWERS.

Our attention has been called by a distinguished Kentucky friend to the following clipping from the Louisville Courier Journal's report of the recent speech of Col. Robert B. Franklin at Versailles pleading for votes for J. Campbell Cantrell, which we had overlooked:

Col. Franklin said: "If Caleb Powers should be elected from the Eleventh district and Cantrell defeated in the Seventh, shame would rest not on the Eleventh, but on the Seventh district; that Powers would stand in Congress and say: 'I have been twice vindicated; I have been elected to Congress by the people of Kentucky and the son of a Judge who tried me has been defeated.'"

If Mr. Cantrell is running for Congress in the Seventh district as a vindication of his father, Judge James E. Cantrell, who himself boasted on the stump of the political value to the Democratic party of his judicial decisions in the Goebel and Powers contest and assassination cases, and whose conduct in the Powers case was twice reversed by a Democratic Court of Appeals, then we are glad that the Republicans of the Eleventh district nominated Caleb Powers as a vindication of his part in the troubled events from 1890 to 1900 and shall be satisfied to take the election results in the two districts as a fair measure of their relative standing in their communities. —Lexington Leader

Nervous Prostration

"I suffered so with Nervous Prostration that I thought there was no use trying to get well. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and although skeptical at first, I soon found myself recovering, and am to-day well."

MRS. D. I. JONES,
5800 Broadway, Cleveland, O.

Much sickness is of nervous origin. It's the nerves that make the heart force the blood through the veins, the lungs take in oxygen, the stomach digest food, the liver secrete bile and the kidneys filter the blood. If any of these organs are weak, it is the fault of the nerves through which they get their strength. Dr. Miles' Nerveine is a specific for the nerves. It soothes the irritation and assists in the generation of nerve force. Therefore you can hardly miss it if you take Dr. Miles' Nerveine when sick. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY For Bargain Seekers.

FOR CASH.

WE know that this is an age when everyone is seeking bargains and many will not buy unless they can realize that they are getting bargains. We have been a long time in business and our experience has enabled us to foresee the requirements, and we have taken advantage of this, and stocked our Mammoth Store with real

FIRST CLASS BARGAINS

When we say FIRST CLASS, we mean it in the true sense and only ask that you call and see for yourself.

It would be far too extensive an undertaking to quote prices here, and besides it would be too expensive, so we have decided to mention just a few to show you that we will actually save you money if you come and trade with me.

DRY GOODS:

Standard Calicos at 5c per yard and less—Standard plaid cotton at 5c per yard and up—Ladies Dress goods from 10c per yard and up—Best quality Gingham 5c per yard and up.

GROCERIES:

Meats, 12½c to 15c per lb.—Coffee, 12½c to 15c per lb.—Sugar, 6c to 6½c per lb.—Flour, 65c to 75c per sack—Meal 38c per sack.

A nice line of Ladies' Fall and Winter Hats, latest patterns, at price that will please.

We could go on and fill this entire page of the paper with our LOW PRICES, but we will invite you to come in and see for yourself. SEEING IS BELIEVING, and if you see for yourself you are sure to be convinced. Our delight is to please our customers. If you are not one, we want to make you one. So give us a call.

Very truly,
E. H. JARVIS.

BRICKS.

Backbones and turkeys at ripe.

This is good weather to kill dogs.

Several new houses will be erected in the new addition to town within the next few months.

The Union College foot-ball team played at Middlesboro last Monday and defeated the Middlesboro team by the score of 11 to 0.

The brick work on the new brick store house of Mrs. Lila Cole is about completed and the wood work will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Your attention is called to the full page display ad which appears in this issue, of the Parker Mercantile Co. You should take advantage of their low prices and supply yourself for the winter.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ballinger, wish, through the columns of this paper, to return their grateful thanks to their many friends for their kindness and sympathy lavished upon them in an unstinted manner during the illness and death of their beloved daughter.

WANTED—Two good men who understand logging to drive team. $1.25 per day and board.

FOR SALE—1½ acres of land in the corporate limits of Barbourville with two houses erected on same. Apply to Editor of Advocate for price.

The Snow

The first snow of the season fell last Friday and practically covered the ground for a while, but did not remain long.

The weather for some days, however was raw and cold and the freeze has killed all the flowers and leaves which are falling rapidly now.

Handsome Home Sold

J. T. Gibson has sold his handsome 12 room residence on the corner of College Ave. and High St. to J. M. Robinson, of this city, for $4,500 and will give possession January 1st.

This is one of the most attractive homes in Barbourville and the price is considered very reasonable.

The sale was made by D. W. Clark as agent.

CORTRIGHT

METAL SHINGLES

Laid so years ago as good as new-to-day and have never needed repairs. Think of it! What other roofing will last as long and look as well? They're fireproof, stormproof, and very easily laid. They can be laid right over wood shingles, if necessary, without creating dirt or inconvenience. For prices and other detailed information apply to
